

Gathering Silence Part One: A Few Resources for Prayer

Online Prayer Resources—

d365

<http://d365.org> brief/text; particularly focused on youth & young adults

Pray-As-You-Go

<http://www.pray-as-you-go.org/> + phone apps (with music; multilingual; Jesuit)

Daily Office

<https://dailyofficeexpress.org/> complete text of four daily services w/readings

<http://www.missionstclare.com/> + phone apps (with music in English version)

electronic Common Prayer by Church Publishing $8.99 app, full daily offices plus daily & Eucharistic readings; stored locally (no internet required)

Interesting Options for Learning—

Advent Word

<https://adventword.org/en/home/> global daily postings, hosted by Forward Movement

Lent Madness

<https://www.lentmadness.org/> daily blogs/battle voting for the annual winner of the “golden halo” Offered by Forward Movement

From The Rev. Marguerite Judson...Books, books, books—

Daily Office

Book of Common Prayer (Individuals & families, pp. 136-140)

http://www.episcopalchurch.org/files/downloads/book\_of\_common\_prayer.pdf

Daily Prayer for all Seasons (varies by church season and time of day)

http://www.episcopalchurch.org/files/documents/daily\_prayer\_all\_seasons\_eng\_final\_pages\_0.pdf

A Meditative Calendar by Sadie Gregory, Guild for Psychological Studies provides daily quotes and space for personal reflections.

Hope as Old as Fire by Steven Charleston, Red Moon Publications, 2012, (almost) daily reflections by a Choctaw Bishop of the Episcopal Church

Survey/background

Being Christian, by Rowan Williams, 2014, especially the chapter on Prayer

Journey to the Heart: Christian Contemplation through the Centuries, an illustrated guide, edited by Kim Nataraja, Orbis Books, 2011

For All Souls Episcopal Parish, 2021-10-10

The Rev. Marguerite Judson

with thanks to The Rev. Canon Julia McCray-Goldsmith, “Keeping a Holy Lent - A DioCal Workshop” on 1/30/2016 for on-line resources