WELCOME

If you are a visitor, we are grateful that you have joined us and hope that you find space here to come close to God. We welcome all who seek the Holy, no matter your background. At All Souls Episcopal Parish, we pray, study, celebrate, and serve together, striving to live as the body of Christ in the world. We'd love to connect with you about how to make this church your home. To do so, please fill out one of the pew cards in front of you and drop it in the offertory plate (if you're worshipping with us online, drop an email to Emily at emily@allsoulsparish.org). Check out the announcements sheet at the back of this bulletin for more ways to connect.

Refrain

Give rest, O Christ, to your ser - vant with your saints, where sor - row and pain are no more, nei - ther sigh - ing,
but life ev - er - last - ing.

Choir You only are immortal, the creator and maker of us all;
 and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return.
 For so did you ordain, when you created me, saying,
 "You are dust, and to dust you shall return."
 All of us go down to the dust;
 Yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

All repeat the refrain.

Acclamation

Presider Alleluia! Christ is risen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Collect of the Day

Presider May God be with you.
People And also with you.
 Let us pray.

O God, who on this day taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in her holy comfort; through Jesus Christ your Son your Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Acts — Acts 2:1–21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’”

Psalm 104: 25–32

Lord, send out your Spir- it! Lord, send out your Spir- it!

Lord, send out your Spir- it, and re - new the face of the earth!

Cantor Your works, O Lord, are manifold and wisely made as well;
You filled the earth with forms of life, more than our lips can tell. Refrain

Cantor And yonder lies the great, wide sea, with life of every sort,
And ships, and that Leviathan, which you have made for sport. Refrain

Cantor These look to you and you provide, they gather what you give;
You open wide your hand with good to fill all things that live. Refrain

Cantor You send your Spirit forth and so create and give new birth;
May all your glory long endure; rejoice, Lord, in your earth. Refrain

A Reading from the First Letter to the Romans — Romans 8:22-27

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

after the Lesson:

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

The Holy Gospel according to John— John 15:26-27, 16:4b-15

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. "I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned. "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

after the Gospel:

Presider May God be with you. People And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

 Lord, of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Presider Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker of all. Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Our end-of-the-year Youth Group bonfire will be held on Sunday, May 26th.

CHILDREN & FAMILIES

We believe that children have innate wisdom and connection to God. At All Souls, we center the spiritual curiosity of children and provide spaces for story, play, and embodied exploration.

- We offer Sunday School each week during the 10:30 a.m. service, using the Godly Play curriculum. Children head downstairs at the start of the service, then return after the "Peace." See an usher if you need directions. Pre-K through 5th grade are welcome.
- For parents, the nursery downstairs is open all morning if you need a spot for your child to run around, nurse, change a diaper, etc. During the 10:30 service the live stream will be available on a computer.
- There are three "soft spaces" in the church: the side chapel, and the back of both rows of the pews. These spaces have books, toys, and space for kids to play.
- Email emilyb@allsoulsparish.org for more info about our Children & Family Ministry program!

NEW YOUNG ADULT GROUP (20s & 30s)

The first meeting of our new young adult group is this Tuesday evening, May 19th at 7pm. Join us for food, drinks, and community. Email Lizzie and Tommy Belgum for more information tommylbelgum@gmail.com.

Parish Picnic

Save the date for June 2nd, just following the 10:30a service when we'll all head up to the Padre Picnic Site in Tilden Park for our annual parish picnic. The church will provide the burgers (beef and vegan), buns, and condiments. We just need you all to bring sides, drinks, and desserts. We also need some folks to get up to the site early and to help grill. If you can help out, see Jeannie Koops or Emily Hansen Curran.
